

CORE VALUES

Lost People Matter to God.
He wants them found.

1. Everyone of us has potential in God's eyes. How would you rate your ability in recognizing potential in others who are still living apart from God?
2. Think of your present sphere of influence - where you live, where you work, your friends, your kids' friends, relatives, and so on. How do you think God expects you to impact the lives of these people?
3. We talked about being with other people for the long haul. Who in your life right now are you being with? In other words, which of your friends and family would say that you are relating with them, knowing them, loving them, and consistently pointing them towards faith?
4. In heaven a perfect environment exists; full of rich relationship, beauty, joy, peace, and rest. Think of three of your family or friends who might be interested in knowing this truth. Write their names down and ask God to reveal ways that you can begin sharing this reality with them.

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.

And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ...

Pray that I may proclaim it clearly as I should. Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.

Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.
